

National Leadership Event Scheduled at CC

By The Chronicle | Posted: Friday, March 25, 2016 9:07 pm

Shaquille O'Neal, Marshall Goldsmith and Kaplan Mobray will take part in the Refresh Leadership Simulcast live event on April 13.

It will be broadcasted at Corbet Theatre at Centralia College. The leadership event will last from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

O'Neal will talk about the people and experiences that helped him become a NBA champion and all-star. He'll share lessons on what he's learned about great leadership on and off the court.

Goldsmith, an author, professor and executive coach, will talk about how to succeed in the corporate world, while Mobray, an author, speaker and career consultant, will help people understand their unique leadership qualities.

The leadership event is put on through a partnership with the Centralia College Foundation, Express Personnel Services, the Lewis Economic Development Council, the Centralia-Chehalis Chamber of Commerce and United Way of Lewis County.

The event is part of Centralia College Foundation's Ellis Oliver Speaker Series.

The event is free to the public. Coffee and pastries will be provided from 8:15 to 8:45 a.m. in the lobby of Washington Hall.

For more information, contact the Foundation office at (360) 736-9391, ext. 290.
